

INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR PERSONAL DATA DURING JOB APPLICATION
(relevant to job applications)

If you are applying for a job at OSCEOLA EOOD, please read carefully the text below. In case you do not agree with any of the points, please do not apply for the announced position.

1. Osceola EOOD is an Administrator of personal data with its registered office in Veliko Tarnovo, №3 Nish Str. and identification number 104637020.
2. Provision of your personal data is a requirement in case you are applying for a vacant job position published by Osceola EOOD and for the additional staff selection procedures.
3. Osceola EOOD collects, processes and keeps your personal data during the campaign for staff selection.
4. The collected data is used:
 - For selecting staff members amongst the applicants for a vacant position announced by Osceola EOOD;
 - For contacting you by phone, e-mail, for sending correspondence regarding your job application.
5. Your personal data is kept for 1 (one) calendar year after which it is erased.
6. Osceola EOOD takes safeguard measures – including administrative, technical and physical measures – in order to secure your personal data from loss, theft or misuse, as well as from unauthorized access, disclosure, modification or destruction.
7. When you apply for a job position, Osceola EOOD will be granted access to your personal data only if you allow this, by attaching your CV, your cover letter or other information fitting the announced requirements. You bare the responsibility of any personal information which you choose to provide.
8. The personal data is not shared or disclosed to third parties outside of Osceola EOOD.
9. The personal data processed at Osceola EOOD is not transmitted to other countries.
10. Your personal data can be processed for the needs of the campaign for staff selection, only by your personal consent, while the processing is only to the purpose and extent, matching the given consent.
11. By applying for the announced job positions by Osceola EOOD, you give an express consent for your data to be used for the purposes of the selection campaign for the published position as well as to establish communication with you through the contact data you have provided.
12. You have the right of access, corrections, objection of processing and erasing of your personal data after a written request is filed to the Administrator of personal data – the information about the procedure to use these rights will be given to you after you send an inquiry to the e-mail security@osceola.de
13. In case of misuse of your personal data or in case of doubts about its security, please notify immediately by e-mail to security@osceola.de
14. For additional questions, please write to us at security@osceola.de